Since having the ExciteDental system installed, I've seen revenue from elective procedures increase as much as 40% over previous monthly bests. And the fact that the system is completely managed by Excite Visual is perfect - I can continue to focus on what I do best...helping patients improve their smiles.

Excite Visual Systems' cutting-edge technology gives us a way to accurately represent and promote the dynamic, progressive nature of our company, both in our reception area and at trade shows nationwide, and reflects our mission statement to "look for and adopt improved technologies and resources. They will erase limitations and raise performance levels."

Dentists spend thousands of dollars each year just to get new patients in the door, but spend very little to explain their capabilities once the new patients have arrived - that's like a restaurant advertising heavily and then not providing any menus. The ExciteDental system is an outstanding solution to that problem.
